

euronews

the most-watched news channel in Europe

www.euronews.com

At euronews, we believe in people's intelligence and think that our duty is to give you the right amount of information so you can form your own opinion about the world. News is not a matter of having preconceptions. Our role is to broadcast reality and deliver reliable news, real news, pure news.

global international news channel euronews is Europe's leading international news channel as well as a full multimedia hub for viewers on the move. euronews covers world news from a European perspective and broadcasts 24/7, simultaneously in thirteen languages: Arabic, English, French, German, Greek, Hungarian, Italian, Persian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, Turkish and Ukrainian. euronews reaches 415 million households in 156 countries and is watched by 6,4 million Europeans daily.

Visit euronews.com and catch up euronews' content in 14 languages.

programmes

euronews provides up-to-the-minute news bulletins with the latest news, business, finance, sport, current affairs, weather, and live breaking news as it happens. euronews news bulletins are complete and concise; priority is given to the facts and stories.

euronews complements core news services with a range of topical current affairs programming looking into the world of latest technologies, culture and education.

news
Every half hour, the latest international news.

business
The latest business and financial news.

markets
Stock exchanges, currency rates and commodity prices.

sport
Summaries, highlights and results from major sporting events.

no comment
The most striking pictures from around the world, unedited, with original sound.

le mag
A daily look at arts, entertainment and the world around us.

and many more...

more than a TV station... a global news hub

